THE COURT: Very well. Then, Mr, Kephart or Ms. DiGiacomo, you may retrieve that.

MR. KEPHART: Okay.

THE COURT: I'm gonna have the bailiff go down and bring up the jury and we will be in recess 'til they arrive,

(Court recessed at 10:44:41 until 11:28:39)

(Prospective jurors are present)

THE BAILIFF: All rise, please. Department II is in now in session, the Honorable Valorie J. Vega presiding, Please be seated.

THE COURT: Let the record reflect that this is the time to initiate the trial in the case under Number C177394, which is State versus Lobato.

The record shall reflect the presence of the defendant, together with her three counsel, the presence of the two prosecuting attorneys, and the ladies and gentlemen of the potential jury panel that have been brought into the courtroom and seated by the bailiff.

Ladies and gentlemen of the potential jury panel, you are in Department II of the Eighth Judicial District Court, My name is Valorie Vega and I'm the presiding judge in this department.

I'm gonna take this opportunity to introduce to you some of the court staff. To my left is Lisa Lizotte who is the

PROCEEDINGS
(THE PROCEEDINGS BEGAN AT 10:43:14)

(Prospective jurors are not present)

THE COURT: On the criminal calendar, State versus Lobato, C177394, The record shall reflect that the defendant Is present, together with the three defendant's counsel, that the two deputy district attorneys are present as well.

The Court and counsel have convened. We're outside the pre4ence of the jury.

The motion with regard to the photographs brought by the defense will be continued III tomorrow morning at 11:00 o'clock, And we will resume the trial with the jury at 11:00.

The parties have stipulated that an audiotape that was a redacted interview with the defendant which was admitted at the prior trial as State's Exhibit 125A be released to the State, the State to make two copies, one for the State and one for the defense and then this original one to be returned to the clerk.

Is that correct?

MR. KEPHART: Yes, Your Honor,

THE COURT: Is that correct?
MR. SCHIECK: Yes, Your Honor.

court recorder for Department II, It is her job to make sure that everything that transpires during this trial is properly preserved by the record which she monitors. In the Regional Justice Center, all of our proceedings are both taped and audio/visual recorded. She monitors that system. And if there are any deficiencies or technical problems, she'll bring those to our attention. Also, if someone is not speaking loudly enough to be picked up and have what they are saying maintained on the recording device, she will draw our attention to that.

You'll notice throughout the courtroom that there are microphones placed in various locations. That is for the purpose of capturing the record. The microphones are highly sensitive and do pick up from quite a significant distance.

To my right is Billie Jo Craig, She is a deputy court clerk who has been assigned to Department II by Shirley Parraguirre, the county clerk. It is the job of the clerk to administer the oath to the ladies and gentlemen of the jury, to all of the witnesses who will be coming in to testify from the witness stand during trial and keep track of all of the items of physical evidence that may be introduced in court. Also, the clerk will daily prepare minutes or summaries of the day's events that goes into the official file maintained in the Office of the County Clerk.

To my far right is Officer Richard Burns. He is the bailiff for Department II and is the gentleman that met you down in the Office of Jury Commissioner and brought you into the courtroom, It is the job of the bailiff to maintain security inside the courtroom. The bailiff will assist the Court coming and going from the courtroom and the bailiff will also be of assistance to the ladies and gentlemen of the jury. Primarily when it comes time for the jury to deliberate toward reaching a verdict, the bailiff will be one of the officers who will take charge of the jury to make sure that the jury has privacy for their deliberations to occur.

Court and counsel have just been provided with a computerized listing from the Office of the Jury Commissioner of all of the ladies and gentlemen who form the potential panel in this case.

Does the State desire to present a challenge to the panel as a whole?

MR. KEPHART: Nothing by the State, no, Your Honor.

ladies and gentlemen at the plaintiff's and defendant's table introduce themselves to you. They're going to be giving you some information about the case, just a very, very brief synopsis of what the nature of the case is. This is not the time for the attorneys to make their opening argument or opening statement to you. The opening statements will be made after the jury selection has been completed.

They will, however, be telling you the names of any possible witnesses which may be called to the stand to testify during the trial. Please listen to the names of all of the witnesses as I will be asking you if you are familiar with any of those individuals.

The State may proceed.

MS. DIGIACOMO: Thank you, Your Honor.

My name is Sandra DiGiacomo and this is William Kephart. We are both deputy district attorneys and we're the prosecutors assigned to present this matter to you.

The charges in the information are murder with use of a deadly weapon and sexual penetration of a dead human body. The facts behind this case occurred July 8, 2001, The victim, Duran Bailey, was found blunt force trauma to the head and multiple stab wounds, including the fact that his penis was severed from his body and found a few feet from the body,

Ladies and gentlemen of the potential jury panel, we are about to commence what's called the voir dire examination of the potential jurors. And "voir dire" is a Latin term which, loosely translated, means to tell the truth. In order to go through this process, you will be asked various questions that bear on your ability to sit as a fair and impartial juror if selected to serve here. To accomplish this result, it's necessary that various questions be asked of you. The Court will initially conduct the questioning and then the questioning will turn over to counsel. Counsel for both sides will have the opportunity to pose questions as well.

On occasion, some of the questions will seem somewhat personal. Please understand that while we do not wish to unnecessarily pry into your personal lives, the questions are necessary so that Court and counsel can make intelligent determinations as to your capabilities to serve fairly and impartially. I want you to understand that myself and everyone involved in this case is deeply concerned with having it tried by jurors who are completely open-minded, neutral, objective and unbiased in their thinking.

method of examination of jurors so, as I stated previously, I will personally conduct some of the voir dire but then I will give the attorneys the opportunity to participate in the questioning as well.

For counsels' edification, please do not ask questions already asked or answered by the Court or other counsel, nor questions that touch upon the anticipated instructions on the law that the Court will be giving to the jury before the jury

9 jury commissioner. 10 At some point during the jury selection process you 11 will be divided into two groups. The Court will proceed further 12 with additional questions of the first group and those in the 13 second group will need to listen to all of the questions because 14 if any of the seats in the first group become vacated, then a 15 person from the second group will be moved up to assume a Wide discretion is vested in the trial judge as to the 16 seat in the first group and then will be asked the very same 17 questions that were asked of the first group. 18

Also at some point during this process of jury selection the attorneys for both sides will have the right to ask that a particular juror or particular potential juror not be selected to serve as a juror. These requests are called challenges. Under our system there are two types of challenges. There are challenges for cause and there are also peremptory challenges. A challenge for cause means a juror is retires to consider its verdict, nor questions that touch upon a verdict that a juror would return when based upon hypothetical facts, and that is probably my biggest pet peeve, nor questions that in substance constitute argument of the case.

Ladies and gentlemen, it's important that you understand the significance of providing full, complete and honest answers to all of the questions that are going to be posed to you. I caution you not to try to hide or withhold anything that might touch upon your qualifications to serve for should you fail to answer truthfully or should you hide or withhold anything that does touch upon your qualifications, that may then contaminate the jury's verdict and, unfortunately, subject you to individual inquiry even after discharge from jury service.

The decision of the jury in this case should be based on all of the evidence that is going to be presented at this trial and should not be based on any preconceived prejudice or bias. A prejudice is a predisposition against something or someone and a bias is a predisposition in favor of something or someone.

As I initiate the voir dire questioning, I'm going to ask the questions of the entire group. If you wish to answer yes to any of the Court's questions, please raise your hand and being excused because some of the answers to the questions indicate that he or she would have a difficult time giving a fair and impartial hearing to the case. A peremptory challenge, however, means that a juror can be excused from duty without counsel having to give any reason for the excusal. Please do not be offended should you be excused by either of these challenge procedures as they are simply a part of the procedures designed to protect the rights of the parties under our system of government.

This being the fifth anniversary of the 9/11 attacks on the United States causes us to reflect on our system of government and how important It is and how fortunate we all are as citizens of the United States to have this form of government with the three independent branches, this being the judicial branch that you've been called in here to potentially be selected to serve upon today.

THE COURT; Do you believe that your contact with the District Attorney's Office personnel would affect your ability to serve as a fair and impartial juror in this case?

PROSPECTIVE JUROR BAKER: No.

THE COURT: Okay. We have just conducted what's called a sidebar discussion. Sidebar discussions occur up here at the bench between Court and counsel and concern issues of scheduling for the trial or issues of law which are the providence of the Court and not the providence of the jury. I have found that doing the sidebar discussions allows the trial to roll along a little more swiftly and smoothly because the only other option is to exclude all of you out to the hallway and then have the bailiff regroup you, return you and reseat you, which obviously is a much more time-consuming process. So for that reason, you will see the sidebars occurring during the PROSPECTIVE JUROR ROSALES: 271.

THE COURT: You may remain seated,

PROSPECTIVE JUROR ROSALES: Miguel Rosales.

THE COURT: Mr. Rosales, who is it that you're acquainted with?

PROSPECTIVE JUROR ROSALES: My sister works for the city investigating murder cases and to watch evidence. Her name is Margot Rosales.

MR. SCHIECK: Your Honor, can we approach for a second?

THE COURT: Yes, counsel may approach.

We'll go off the record.

(Off-record bench conference at 11:53:48 until 11:57:43)

THE COURT: At this time the Court will thank and excuse Miguel Rosales, Badge Number 271, for cause, And he may report back to the Office of the Jury Commissioner,

Thank you for your service to your community, Mr. Rosales, trial either by the Court asking counsel to approach or by counsel asking to approach the bench, either way.

At this time we will be taking our lunch recess. The law requires that I read to you a warning or an admonishment each and every time we take a break in the case. So this is the first time that you will be hearing it but then you will be hearing it again with every future break.

Ladies and gentlemen, during this lunch recess you are admonished not to talk or converse, not amongst yourselves nor with anyone else, on any subject that is connected with this trial, and you are not to read, watch or listen to any report of or commentary on the trial or any person connected with the trial, by any medium of information, including, without limitation, newspaper, television, radio and Internet, and you are not to form or express any opinion on any subject connected with this trial until the case is finally submitted to you.

The Court advises you also that the ladies and gentlemen at the plaintiff's and the defendant's table are not allowed to speak with the ladies and gentlemen of the jury for any reason. So please understand that as you're coming and going to and from the courthouse, walking through the corridors or coming up and down the elevators, if any of them are in proximity to you they will not be giving you a good morning hello or acknowledging you. Please understand that they are not ignoring you or being antisocial but, rather, are bound by law and ethics not to speak with you for it may contaminate the jury's verdict,

W v. LOBATO 9/1,1/06

The Court is gonna ask that at 1:15 you all please be in the hallway outside the double doors. The bailiff will meet you out into the hallway to return you to your seats.

Court will be in recess III 1:15.

THE BAILIFF: All rise.

 (Court recessed at 12:01:28 until 13:48:11)□ (Prospective jurors are present)

THE BAILIFF: Department II is back in session. Please be seated.

THE COURT: The record shall reflect we're resuming trial in State versus Lobato under C177394, in the presence of the defendant and her three counsel, the two prosecuting attorneys, and ladies and gentlemen of the potential jury panel:.

The clerk-6s just provided me a copy of a motion filed by the State in open court, which the Court notes for the record.

During the recess over the lunch hour, we've had a couple of things transpire. And the Court at this time is -- the Court has discussed them with counsel in chambers.

The Court is aware that it is always a surprise to get your jury summons in the mail. I got one in the mail about a year and a half ago, and I responded. We were in the old courthouse at that time. You always have to rearrange your schedule and make alternative plans and figure out how to get downtown and park and get into the building and up the elevator, and all of those fun things that are a part of doing jury service.

The Court's going to ask the next question. I want you to understand the next question is not would it be inconvenient for you to do jury service because, if that were the question, everybody would raise their hand and we would never be able to do any trials in this courthouse. The question is would serving during this time frame pose an undue hardship upon anyone?

Okay.. This is one of those questions where I've had multiple people respond so I will be calling upon you in the order of the list provided by the Office of the Jury Commissioner, and you may put your hands down.

Beginning in the back row. Did anybody in that row have their hand up?

PROSPECTIVE JUROR BOUCKLEY: 088.

THE COURT: Yes, ma'am.

PROSPECTIVE JUROR BOUCKLEY: Lupe Bouckley.

1-28

The Court is going to thank and excuse for cause at this time a few of the potential jurors. Number 203, which is Ofer Gur. Number 204, which is Paul Gaulin. And 225, which is Bonnie Leonard.

The Court is gonna ask that Mr. Gur assist Ms. Leonard, You may exit through the rear doors and please proceed back to the Office of the Jury Commissioner.

We have a note which will be marked as Court's Number 1.

THE CLERK: Yes, Your Honor.

THE COURT: Proceeding forward with the voir dire questioning by the Court in the same fashion as we did prior to the lunch recess.

Is there anyone who is acquainted with any of the witnesses whose names were mentioned by counsel?

The record shall reflect no response.

Ladies and gentlemen, as you heard from counsel, there are going to be a number of witnesses called to give testimony in this case. It's anticipated that the case will take two to three weeks to try, that it will be concluded, at the very latest, by Friday which would be the --

MS. DiGIACOMO: 29th.

THE COURT: 29 of September.

Thank you, Ms. DiGiacomo.

I'm a diabetic and cannot sit for more than thirty minutes, stand, whatever. I'm on insulin. And I don't have a doctor's note. And I also have a sixteen-year-old that's under house arrest and I'm supposed to be with him.

THE COURT: Okay. Continuing down that rowr PROSPECTIVE JUROR ARIENO: 196, Frank Arlen°, I just started a new business.

THE COURT: Continuing down that row.

PROSPECTIVE JUROR TONG: 197. I don't —

THE COURT: Edric Tong?

PROSPECTIVE JUROR TONG: Yes. I don't think I can attend so many days because I have job and —

THE COURT: Because why?

PROSPECTIVE JUROR TONG: Because I need to work and I know my schedule is pretty tight. I got two hours a day.

THE COURT: Anyone else in that row? PROSPECTIVE JUROR WILLSON: 205. Greg Willson. I have a new building coming out of the ground starting September 15. It's a 46-story tower over at the City Center Project. The time -- the timing just doesn't quite work out for me. That's it.

THE COURT: In the front row?

PROSPECTIVE JUROR WILCOX: 209, Gary Wilcox,

1-29

9/11/06

NV v. LOBATO Your Honor. I work graveyard as a slot technician, plus also I start a school September 30th that takes me 'til 1 May of next 3 year. THE COURT: We'll be done September 29th at the latest, PROSPELLIVE JUROR WILCOX: Okay. That's fine. 6 7 THE COURT: Okay. You may be seated. 8 Along that row? Yes, sir, 9 PROSPECTIVE JUROR FROSCHHEUSER: 212, 10 Randall Froschheuser. I have a vacation scheduled out of state with reservations, and so I don't know. 11 THE COURT: When is your vacation? 12 PROSPECTIVE JUROR FROSCHHEUSER: It starts the 13 14 21't. 15 THE COURT: Can you slide it a week? PROSPECTIVE JUROR FROSCHHEUSER: I probably 16 17 could. 18 THE COURT: Okay, Continuing down that row. Yes, ma'am, 19 20 PROSPECTIVE JUROR GIARDINA: 215, Karen 21 Giardina. I'm a schoolteacher and school just started, and 22 three weeks would be a long time to be out of the classroom 23 at the beginning of the school year. 24 THE COURT: You have substitutes available? 1-30 PROSPECTIVE JUROR GIARDINA: Clark County, it's hard right now. 3 THE COURT: You're with the Clark County School District? PROSPECTIVE JUROR GIARDINA: Right, Lenhardt. I'm a union electrician and a sole provider, and I'm in the process of buying a house. And it would be an undue hardship for me to serve,

Right now we're presently at a hundred and sixty officers, We're down twenty-eight officers. I'm a patrol officer. The area I have would be gone. There's no one there. And that's covering about twenty-five schools,

THE COURT: You personally patrol twenty-five schools on a daily basis?

PROSPECTIVE JUROR BAKER: Yes, ma'am. There's myself and there's two patrol officers and a sergeant, and we have from Charleston to Flamingo, from the 1-15 all the way up to as far east as you can go.

THE COURT: So there's three of you that together cover that area?

PROSPECTIVE JUROR BAKER: There's three of us. And in that total area there is probably about eighty schools.

THE COURT: Okay.

PROSPECTIVE JUROR CICILIANO: Mine is not so much that I -

PROSPECTIVE JUROR CICILIANO: Oh, Thomas Ciciliano, Number 220. I work a twenty-four-hour shift. I work for the Clark County Fire Department. Are we able during this court to also then go back to work during the proceedings or how would that work out? It's more of a question. I imagine they'll get somebody to work for me if you keep me here,

THE COURT: Generally, the fire department does provide coverage. But we will be in session Monday through Friday. We will not be in session in the mornings until 10:30 Monday, Tuesday, Wednesday, Thursday. We may start earlier on Fridays.. Mondays and Wednesdays we have civil law and motion calendar at 9:00 o'clock and Tuesdays and Thursdays we have criminal calendar and sentencings at 9:00 o'clock. So I'm not sure what they're gonna require of you of the time that you're out of court. But we will generally recess at 5:00 in the evening.

PROSPECTIVE JUROR CICILIANO: That was my question. After that 5:00 o'clock, I go -- I can go back on duty. On weekends, I can also work?

THE COURT: Right. We won't be in session on Saturday or Sunday.

Continuing down his row,

PROSPECTIVE JUROR JONES: I am James Jones.

1-33

VV v. LOBATO 9/11/06

My badge number is 222.

THE COURT: Yes, sir.

PROSPECTIVE JUROR JONES: And my wife is disabled and I'm the only source of income for our family right now. And I've been working all sorts of different shifts. We're trying to keep ends meet. And loss of any pay right now would be just terrible for us because I could not even afford to keep us in our house because I'm on the verge of eviction right now. Plus, I worked all night and I haven't had any sleep yet,

THE COURT: Okay.

PROSPECTIVE JUROR CHERRY: 223, Rowena Cherry. I am a single parent working three jobs, one of which is delivering the newspaper which I have nobody to cover my seven-day-a-week route. And for me to not see the news would mean I would have to have somebody cover the route, If I don't have somebody cover the route, I lose my job. So the other two jobs, I work during the time I would be in court. So it would be a financial hardship for me.

THE COURT: Anyone else in that row?

PROSPECTIVE JUROR MANN: 226, Dave Mann. I'm a small business owner and I have -- I'm the sole source of revenue for my company and I have a payroll to support every week. In addition to that, next week I have a class that I've morning? Most of — most of the therapists' offices open at 7:00.

PROSPECTIVE JUROR CHAPMAN: That's been explored with my case nurse. There is nothing open at the time and it's too late in the evening. I could go -- I live, where I live, where -- the clinic I'm going to, she didn't tell me about anything available in the morning. I don't know of anything available in the morning, And —

THE COURT: What time do you usually go? PROSPECT_WE JUROR CHAPMAN: What do you

THE COURT: Right.

PROSPECTIVE JUROR CHAPMAN: 1:00~p.m,

THE COURT: Okay. If you'd turn the letter over to the bailiff, please,

 $PROSPECTIVE\ JUROR\ CHAPMAN:\ Yes,\ ma'am.$

THE COURT: Continuing down that row.

Yes, ma'am.

PROSPECTIVE JUROR HESS: 234, Sandra Hess. My husband had lung surgery last month. He had a 24-inch blood clot in there, and so they had to go in, open him up. And he can't drive for eight to ten weeks, and he goes to the doctor twice a week to have -- for his checkups, plus have his blood count checked and to get shots because it's kind of off still. So had for -- signed up for six months. It's for a financial certification. And I purchased the class and the plane tickets and it's not refundable.

THE COURT: How much was the class and the plane tickets?

PROSPECTIVE JUROR MANN: The class was $1500 and then the plane tickets weren't bad, maybe 150,

THE COURT: Thank you,

And the next row?

PROSPECTIVE JUROR CANTOR: Karl Cantor, Badge 231, I am the sole provider for my family right now. It's very hard for me to lose any money. I'm starting up a new job or a new construction site the beginning of next week.

THE COURT: Continuing down that row.

Yes. sir.

PROSPECT_IVE JUROR CHAPMAN: 232, Thomas Chapman, I suffered a workplace injury in March of this year, consequently, moved through the Workers' Compensation process, And I was not effective in getting them to initiate effective treatment until three weeks ago. It just commenced. It's not completed. I don't want to stop. And at this point I do have a letter from my therapist appealing to [unintelligible], you know, That's the best I can tell you.

THE COURT: Is there any reason why he can't schedule his doctor's appointments in the mornings?

PROSPECTIVE JUROR HESS: Well, his doctors have surgery. So — yeah. Yeah. I think just about every appointment they always schedule for the afternoons.

THE COURT: Continuing down that row,

Yes, ma'am,

PROSPECTIVE JUROR MOIR: Michelle Moir, 235. I'm the sole provider of myself, two children. I'm a single mother. I do work as a nurse and I could be here, but I don't know what the policy and the procedures are where I work, if they would compensate me or not out of my PTO 'cause I don't have PTO. So as long as they can compensate me, that's fine. But if they don't, then I would have to work.

THE COURT: You should place a call on the next break.

PROSPECTIVE JUROR MOIR: Okay.
THE COURT: Continuing down that row.
PROSPECT_IVE JUROR ISOM: 237, Greg Isom. Its

PROSPECTIVE JUROR RAHMAN: I think two each. THE COURT: Okay. Continuing down that row. PROSPECLWE JUROR REAL: 265, Wendy Real. I've been back to work for four weeks. I just had a baby in April.

THE COURT: Okay. Continuing down that row, PROSPECTIVE JUROR HALL: 264. Delorise Hall. I'm a cancer survivor. I've been off nine months, Now I'm just going back to work, and I'm the only person in my house that is working. And my job don't pay. They only pay the basic day. And at this point I've used up all my savings, been off nine months, and so my credit cards is maxed. So I need to work,

THE COURT: You're the only one in your household generating income at this time?

PROSPECTIVE JUROR HALL: Yes.

Okay. Starting on the aisle in the stripes.

PROSPECTIVE JUROR MIGUEL: 278, Elisa Miguel.

I'm a nurse and I work —

THE COURT: Hold on. 278? I found you, PROSPECTIVE JUROR MIGUEL; I'm a nurse and I work ten hours four to five days a week just to cover the nursing short dates, and I'm scheduled also to see my son in Reno, he's in college, from the 16th through 28th of the month, this month.

THE COURT: Continuing down that row, PROSPECTIVE JUROR EASTBURN: 277, Eva Eastburn. I have two children, twelve and sixteen. I pick my daughter up every day from school. She's not in the -- she's not in the school we're zoned for. I also work in the school district part-time. I'm an assistant in the cafeteria. So I'm home by 2:00 so I can pick her up. Today my husband is supposed to be picking her up, and he got -- he's a manager for Krispy Kreme Donuts and he's the general manager. So one of his managers called in, so now he's taking her to work with him 'til I get done. And I don't have any way to watch them after school.

THE COURT; A kid going to a donut store? It doesn't sound like such a bad thing.

PROSPECTIVE JUROR HALL: She's sixteen. THE COURT: Okay. Anyone else in that row? PROSPECLIVE JUROR SNOWDEN: 259, Michael Snowden, I'm an owner/operator of a small landscape company here in town. And right now I'm the only person doing the sales.

THE COURT: Okay. Anyone else in that row? PROSPECTIVE JUROR CHANEY: 256, Talib Chaney. I take care of my two small children, two and five years old, every day at 4:00 o'clock. And my wife is missing work today because I'm here,

THE COURT: Where are they prior to 4:00 pm.? PROSPECTIVE JUROR CHANEY; They're with their mother. She works swing and I work [unintelligible] shift. And it takes still two incomes just to get by today.

THE COURT; Is there anyone in the family that could watch the kids --

PROSPECTIVE JUROR CHANEY: No, There's no --THE COURT: -- for like an hour and a half every

PROSPECTIVE JUROR CHANEY: No, there's no one here. She has no family here and I have no family here. She's from L.A. I'm from Chicago,

THE COURT: Okay. In the next row. I should have

PROSPECTIVE JUROR EASTBURN: No. but -- it doesn't, but he has to work while she sits there. So and there is nobody there to watch them,

THE COURT: Oh, I'm sure there will be something to occupy her with. So it's a twelve-year-old and how old? PROSPECTIVE JUROR EASTBURN: Fifteen,

THE COURT: Okay. Oh, it's been a few moons ago, but when I was an undergraduate I used to go in at 3:00 in the morning to bake donuts and do all of the raising and the frosting and the jimminies and the sprinkles and the stuffing with the raspberry jelly in it. There is plenty of fun stuff to play with in a donut store.

PROSPECTIVE JUROR EASTBURN: Yeah, but they're not allowed to do that stuff. Theyll get in trouble, unfortunately.

THE COURT; Continuing down that row, PROSPECTIVE JUROR HALVERSON: 276, Tye Halverson. I'm chief operating officer of Southwest Air Conditioning, That means I run the day-to-day operations. I can usually afford to take a few days off a year. But my company, I do all the check signing and everything. I'm also the -- the only time I was scheduled to go out of town was the 23rd to represent the Sheet Metal and Air Conditioning Contractors National Association for ITMO [phonetic], which is been purchased,

PROSPECTIVE JUROR HALVERSON: Yes.

THE COURT: Is there someone else who can attend in your place?

PROSPECTIVE JUROR HALVERSON: No. I'm --

THE COURT: Are you —

PROSPECTIVE JUROR HALVERSON: I've been the —

THE COURT: -- elected to a position where you're required to be present?

PROSPECTIVE JUROR HALVERSON: I'm elected to a position, I'm a voting member. I'm also the code's committee chairman for SMAKNA [phonetic]. And I've been serving in that position now for about six years. There's nobody else on

1-46

THE COURT: Anybody else in that row?
PROSPECTIVE JUROR SATALLANTE: Jody
Satallante. I'm the sole provider for my family. Savings, zero, $100 in checking. One credit card, 500, maxed out. Missed work would mean I wouldn't be able to pay rent, car payment, so on, and there's no way I can make it without working for my family and just to have a roof over our heads. That's all.

THE COURT: Anyone else in that row?

Anyone else that I have not called upon wish to respond to that question?

The record shall reflect no further response.

Would counsel please approach?

(Off-record bench conference at 14:21:44 until 14:34:41)

THE COURT: At this time there are a number of you who are gonna be thanked and excused for cause. As your badge number and your name is read, you may exit through the double rear doors and please report back to the Office of the Jury Commissioner.

088, Lupe Bouckley. 222, James Jones. 226, David Mann, 232, Thomas Chapman. 234, Sandra Hess. 243, Jonathan Weinbach. 246, Debra Strong. 250, Victor Alarcon. 256, Talib Chaney. 264, Delorise Hall. 267, Farhana Rah man. 270, Jody Satallante. 276, Tye Halverson.

Is there anyone who has a difficulty with the English

the committee. We go to make sure that our association's relationship with those building officials stay current.

THE COURT: Anyone else in his row?

PROPEL!_iVE JUROR GLYNN: 274, Lori Glynn. I have four children and one which has just started UNLV, If I have to serve on a jury, I could lose my house. My child will have to quit college. I can't afford it. It'll be financially devastating for my family,

THE COURT: Do you have a savings account? PROSPECTIVE JUROR GLYNN: I just — why would I want to spend my hard-earned savings just to pay my mortgage and stuff? I need to work. I mean, I can't see depleting my savings account to appear on a jury. Ill drain it, I have very little in there. And if — I've worked my butt off for it. And it wouldn't even cover college,

THE COURT: You have a credit card?

PROSPECTIVE JUROR GLYNN: Yeah, It's practically maxed out because my daughter had to start college and I had to put all her books on it. Plus, I've got three boys I had to buy school clothes for, and the mortgage and a 400-dollar-amonth utility bill,

THE COURT: Okay,

PROSPECTIVE JUROR GLYNN: It would be financially devastating, language that they believe would affect their ability to serve as a juror here?

I have a hand up.

PROSPECTIVE JUROR WARD: Let's see. I looked at my badge. 638, Lumduan Ward.

THE COURT: Have you been able to understand everything that's transpired in this trial so far?

PROSPECTIVE JUROR WARD: No, ma'am. I understand really little English, I mean.

THE COURT: The Court will thank and excuse you for cause, and you may report back to the Office of the Jury Commissioner.

PROSPECTIVE JUROR WARD: Thank you, ma'am, THE COURT: Is there anyone who believes that they have a medical problem that would preclude them from participating in this trial?

The record shall reflect no response.

Have any of you ever been employed in law enforcement?

Okay. We've got a few hands up, a couple that we've spoken to before that we're gonna talk to again and a few in addition.

In the front row in the blue,

PROSPECTIVE JUROR BLACK: Oh. 216, Wendell

Black. I'm a employee with the United States Secret Service, the federal law enforcement agency that investigates financial crimes and crimes against missing and exploited children. I also currently work on a task force with the Secret Service that also incorporates local, state and other federal law enforcement agencies.

THE COURT: How long have you been employed in this capacity?

PROSPECLNE JUROR BLACK: Four years.

THE COURT: Four years. And have all four years been here in the Las Vegas area?

PROSPECTIVE JUROR BLACK: Yes, ma'am.

THE COURT: What line of work were you in prior to the one that you're currently in?

PROSPECTIVE JUROR BLACK: I was a federal inspector prior to being a financial crimes analyst.

THE COURT: Postal inspector?

PROSPECTIVE JUROR BLACK: No, I'm sorry,

Customs.

THE COURT: Customs inspector. How long did you do that work?

PROSPECTIVE JUROR BLACK: Eight years.

THE COURT: Did you listen to the names of all of the witnesses that the attorneys listed?

PROSPELi_WE JUROR BAKER: No, Your Honor.

THE COURT: Thank you,

Yes, sir.

PROSPECTIVE JUROR ROBERT MILLER: Bob Miller,

247,

THE COURT: Yes, Mr. Miller.

PROSPEC:i.WE JUROR ROBERT MILLER: I retired from Metro, worked part-time for them for Twelve years. I did recognize one name, Tommy Thowsen, but I don't know him real well. My son-in-law is a sergeant with Metro.

THE COURT: How long has your son-in-law been with Metro?

PROSPECTIVE JUROR ROBERT MILLER: Fifteen, twenty years,

THE COURT: Do you know what his assignment is?
PROSPECTIVE JUROR ROBERT MILLER: Right now?
He's in the bureau but I'm not sure exactly what division he is.

THE COURT: What's his name?

PROSPECTIVE JUROR ROBERT MILLER: Chip

20 Minello,

21 M-I-N-E-L-L-O.

THE COURT: What did you do with Metro?
PROSPECTIVE JUROR ROBERT MILLER: I had six years as a night detective, four years in criminal investigation

1-52

PROSPECTIVE JUROR BLACK: Yes, I'm not familiar with any of the names of the witnesses, although the Las Vegas Metro Police detectives on our task force, I'm not sure if they're -- if they know of them or have worked with them. So I'm not sure how that relates to the case itself,

THE COURT: Okay. Is there anyone on your task force that's designated to work homicide cases?

PROSPECTIVE JUROR BLACK: No. Mostly financial crimes, identity theft and electronic crimes, along with cases pertaining to missing and exploited children, child pornography and things like that,

THE COURT: Okay, Thank you, Mr, Black.

PROSPECTIVE JUROR BLACK: You're welcome.

THE COURT: Anyone else in this section?

Out in the audience in the first section?

Yes, sir.

PROSPECTIVE JUROR BAKER: Howard Baker, Badge Number 219. I'm with the Clark County School District Police. I'm a patrol officer.

THE COURT: How long have you had that employment?

PROSPECILIVE JUROR BAKER: Fourteen years.

THE COURT: Were you familiar with any of the witnesses that were named?

and fifteen years in uniform. The twelve years I worked parttime was for repeat offenders,

THE COURT: If a -- if an officer from the Las Vegas Metropolitan Police Department comes into this courtroom to give testimony and takes the witness stand during this trial, do you think that you will be able to keep an open mind and judge that witness's testimony as you would any other witness or do you think that because of your past employment history you might have a tendency to weigh that witness's testimony differently than you would other witnesses?

PROSPECTIVE JUROR ROBERT MILLER: I don't think I would weigh it any different than anything else.

THE COURT: Okay, Thank you,

To go back to 219, Howard Baker, and ask you basically that same question. If a member of law enforcement testifies, do you think that you'll be able to keep an open mind and weigh their testimony as you would any other witness?

PROSPECTIVE JUROR BAKER: I can't answer the same way, Your Honor. I think I -- the right thing would be to weigh it the same, but I don't know if I actually could actually do that.

THE COURT: In your heart of hearts, do you think you would have a tendency to give them more or greater weight just because they are a member of law enforcement?

Do you think you would keep an open mind with an officer? Do you think you'd have a tendency to assess their weight differently?

PROSPECTIVE JUROR BLACK: Probably so, I've been in law enforcement for about twelve years.

THE COURT: Probably so which way?

PROSPECINE JUROR BLACK: I would. I've worked with a lot of law enforcement officers, and I just -- I would like to be fair but I would -- I would tend to put a little more weight into a law enforcement officer's testimony as opposed to anybody else's. I'm sorry. I'd rather be — you know, tell you the honest truth about it, You know, that's how I feel about it.

THE COURT: The Court appreciates your honesty. PROSPECTIVE JUROR BLACK: Thank you, THE COURT: Anyone else have law enforcement experience?

I've got a couple more hands up over here.
PROSPECTIVE JUROR CHRISTINE MILLER: Me?
244, Christine Miller,

1-54

Lloyd Taylor,,

THE COURT: Yes, sir.

PROSPECTIVE JUROR TAYLOR: I was employed with the Sheriff's Office in Virginia from 1985 to '93.

THE COURT: '85 to '93?

PROSPECTIVE JUROR TAYLOR: Yes, ma'am,

THE COURT: In what capacity?

PROSPECTIVE JUROR TAYLOR: I worked in the booking department,

THE COURT: In corrections?

PROSPECTIVE JUROR TAYLOR: Yes, ma'am,,

THE COURT: And the same question for you that

I've asked of a few others. If a member of law enforcement testifies, will you be able to keep an open mind as to that witness's testimony or do you think you would have a tendency to give them greater or lesser weight just because they're a member of law enforcement?

PROSPECTIVE JUROR TAYLOR: I could keep a open mind. I've been out of law enforcement for a while now, so I could actually give an honest opinion.

THE COURT: Thank you,  $\,$

The other gentleman,

PROSPECTIVE JUROR GRIFFIN: Badge Number

257, Wayne Griffin, Twenty-six years, Chicago Police

THE COURT: Let me find you. Just a second. PROSPECTIVE JUROR CHRISTINE MILLER: Okay, THE COURT: Yes, ma'am,

PROSPECTIVE JUROR CHRIS I iNE MILLER: I don't know if this classifies under this category, but my dad is actually -- he just retired from the District Attorney's Office in Nye County where he's been a prosecutor for over twenty years.

THE COURT: Okay. Your dad — your dad retired from Nye Countcf. Did he do all twenty of his years in Nye Countv?

PROSPECTIVE JUROR CHRISTINE MILLER: Yes, he did

THE COURT: Okay. The Court appreciates you bringing that to the Court's attention.

And I have a couple hands up on this side,
In the — well, in the blue shirt, with glasses. It's both of you,

PROSPECTIVE JUROR GRIFFIN: Which one? THE COURT: How about the one closest to the PROSPECTIVE JUROR TAYLOR: Me?

Department, retired, eighteen years with the City of Las Vegas Department Defense and Enforcement, retired in May. So that's forty-four years, Your Honor,

THE COURT: The same question for you, If a member of law enforcement testifies, will you be able to assess their testimony like any other witness or do you think you'd have a tendency to assess it differently because you have been employed in law enforcement in the past?

PROSPECTIVE JUROR GRIFFIN: I believe I would assess them differently and give them more credibility,

THE COURT: Thank you,

Anyone else responding to that last question?

No further response.

Do any of you have a spouse who's engaged in law enforcement work?

I have one hand up.

PROSPECTIVE JUROR McKEEVER: Carol McKeever, 238. My husband is a retired federal law enforcement officer. He was a park ranger.

THE COURT: How long was he employed as a park ranger?

PROSPECTIVE JUROR McKEEVER: Thirty-eight

THE COURT: Was he stationed out at Lake Mead?

THE COURT: Was there anyone else? No, just those two.

Okay. Can I ask that counsel approach and we'll go off the record?

(Off-record bench conference at 15:08:05 until 15:13:21)

THE COURT: At this time there are five of you that I'm gonna ask to remain behind for additional questioning. Those are as follows:

218, Curt Lenhardt. 223, Rowena Cherry. 216, Wendell Black. 219, Howard Baker, And 257, Wayne Griffin,

I'm gonna ask that Michelle Moir, 235, place a phone call with regard to her employment on the break.

Those five jurors, other than her, that I just named, I'm gonna ask to remain behind,

The rest of you are gonna have a recess at this time 'di 3:40. At 3:40, please be in the hallway. The bailiff will meet you there to return you to your seats in the courtroom.

During this recess you're admonished not to talk or converse amongst yourselves nor with anyone else on any subject connected with this trial, and you are not to read, watch or listen to any report of or commentary on the trial or any person connected with the trial, by any medium of information, including, without limitation, newspaper,

MR. KEPHART: Okay.

PROSPECTIVE JUROR BLACK: Not an officer, actually.

MR. KEPHART: Okay. Are you called upon on occasion maybe in state court, even federal court, to testify?

PROSPECTIVE JUROR BLACK: If possible, yes.

MR, KEPHART: You've done that before?

PROSPECTIVE JUROR BLACK: No, I have not.

MR. KEPHART: Okay, How about as a federal inspector; did you ever testify in a court of law as pertaining to your work at that time?

PROSPECTIVE JUROR BLACK: No, I did not.

MR. KEPHART: Okay You said that you have a younger brother that's a police -- or is in law enforcement, an aunt that just retired and an older brother in corrections, and your aunt just retired from corrections, is that correct?

PROSPECTIVE JUROR BLACK: Yeah. She retired about three years ago.

MR, KEPHART: Okay, One of the questions that the Court asked is whether or not you would give a greater weight to the testimony of an officer versus anyone else that was testifying. Is that still your position now?

PROSPECTIVE JUROR BLACK: Yes,

television, radio and Internet, and you are not to form or express any opinion on any subject connected with the trial until the case is finally submitted to you.

With the five of you remaining, the rest of you may exit at this time,

(Prospective jurors recessed at 15:15:02)

THE COURT: With the five of you who have remained, the Court has some followup questions for you that I wanted to do outside the presence of the other jurors in light of some of the fesponses that you've given thus far.

I'm gonna take you in the order provided by the Office of the Jury Commissioner, so Mr. Black will be first.

If the other four of you would just stay right outside the doors in the hallway, the bailiff will be calling on you oneby-one, You remain under the admonishment of the Court while you wait outside.

Those four have now exited,

The State may proceed with questioning of Mr. Black with regard to the weight on officer testimony,

MR, KEPHART: Thank you, Your Honor.

Mr, Black, you indicated that you are currently a law enforcement officer with the U.S. Secret Service, Is that correct?

PROSPECLIVE JUROR BLACK: I'm a crime analyst

MR. KEPHART: Based on what? Why would you do that?

PROSPECTIVE JUROR BLACK: I've been around law enforcement for a while, for a long time, my brother, both my brothers actually, and my aunt. I tend to, I guess, see the uniformed officer as someone who should be of, you know, truth and trustworthiness.

MR, KEPHART: Okay, Like one of the questions that I'd like to ask also is simply because they're a police officer, simply because of that, you would give them greater weight for testimony?

PROSPECTIVE JUROR BLACK: Yes.

MR. KEPHART: Okay. So if you were seated in Ms. Lobato's position, you wouldn't think that you were a fair juror, would you?

PROSPECTIVE JUROR BLACK: No.

MR. KEPHART: Okay, So you can't sit here —

THE COURT: The record shall reflect that he shook his head to the negative.

PROSPECTIVE JUROR BLACK: No. I'm sorry, I should have said no.

MR. KEPHART: Okay. So you can't sit here and be a fair juror then based on what you have just indicated?

PROSPECTIVE JUROR BLACK: I would tend to give more weight to testimony from law enforcement... I feel that wouldn't be fair to the plaintiff if that was the case. MR. KEPHART: Okay, THE COURT: The State of Nevada is the plaintiff, PROSPECTIVE JUROR BLACK: I'm sorry, THE COURT: The prosecutors represent the plaintiff's side, PROSPECTIVE JUROR BLACK: Thank you, I'm sorry. Okay, MR, KEPHART: We have nothing further, Your Honor. Well pass. MR, SCHIECK: The Court's indulgence. THE COURT: Yes. (Pause in the proceedings) MR, SCHIECK: Mr. Black, let me just ask you a couple of questions,, PROSPECTIVE JUROR BLACK: Sure, MR, SCHIECK: And, certainly, in your training you understand the needio have a jury of one's peers that can be fair and impartial in a case? PROSPECTIVE JUROR BLACK: Yes,, MR. SCHIECK: And, certainly, we all recognize that law enforcement officers have training to observe and

Mr. Lenhardt, you indicated that you had some prior knowledge of this case. Can you tell me what the extent of that is?

PROSPECTIVE JUROR LENHARDT: Just newspaper articles. I remember it clearly making a [unintelligible]. And my wife is obsessed with serial killers, CSI, blah, blah, blah, her and her mother. I made a Lorena Bobbitt joke, I remember it clearly, and my wife took it from there.

THE COURT: So in your household, any articles that have to do with murders and murder cases and police investigations are —

PROSPECTIVE JUROR LENHARDT: I have books of every serial killer, every book written about serial killers, and whatever. We watch every CSI show that's on. And —

MR. SCHIECK: Do you believe that it's possible that police officers make mistakes?

PROSPECTIVE JUROR BLACK: Yes. Mm-hmm,

MR, SCHIECK: Okay. And that would be on mind also when they testify?

PROSPECLIVE JUROR BLACK: It would be but probably not to a greater extent, whereas I know the police officer would do his best not to make a mistake to, you know, cause somebodY to go to prison or anything like that.

MR. SCHIECK: We have no further questions, Your Honor.

We would -- if the State isn't, we would challenge for cause.

PROSPECTIVE JUROR LENHARDT: I think it was late last year,

THE COURT: As you heard me say earlier today, the decision of the jury in this case should be based on all of the evidence that's gonna be presented in this courtroom, in this trial. Will you be able to set aside what you were exposed to previously and focus on the evidence to reach your decision in this case if you're selected to serve as a juror?

PROSPECTIVE JUROR LENHARDT: I don't think so,

THE COURT: You're kind of -- kind of massaging that idea right now, trying to think if you --

PROSPECTIVE JUROR LENHARDT: Well, I know what I know. I'm -- I have an opinion and I guess it would have to -- the only way to find out would be to -- I've never been through a trial before. I do have an opinion.

THE COURT: So let me see if I'm understanding you. Are you saying that you have an opinion and that you could listen to the evidence, and then based on that evidence you might decide your opinion was right or you might decide your opinion was wrong?

PROSPECTIVE JUROR LENHARDT: Well, no. I — THE COURT: You're saying you think you're gonna stick pretty much to your opinion?

PROSPECTIVE JUROR LENHARDT: I pretty much am..

THE COURT: Okay, Any questions by the State? MR. KEPHART: No.

THE COURT: Any by the defense?

MR, SCHIECK: No, Your Honor, We would challenge for cause---

MR. KEPHART: Yeah.

The power of the media,

Okay.<sup>4</sup> Mr, Baker, I wanted to allow the Court and counsel to have some followup questions for you with regard to the weight that you might assess to a law enforcement official's testimony,

PROSPECTIVE JUROR BAKER: Yes, Your Honor.

THE COURT: Now with your job with the Clark County School District, do you have interaction with the Las Vegas Metropolitan Police Department?

 $\label{eq:prospective} \mbox{PROSPECLIVE JUROR BAKER: On a constant basis,} \\ \mbox{Your Honor.}$

THE COURT: Okay. The area that you are assigned to patrol is kind of geographically where?

PROSPECTIVE JUROR BAKER: Well, can I give you a -- there's five areas the school district is broken into. I work east central. It's broken into two areas, Henry and George PROSPECilVE JUROR BAKER: Yes, ma'am.

THE COURT: Any questions by the State?

MR. KEPHART: I do, Your Honor.

Mr. Baker or Officer Baker,

PROSPECTIVE JUROR BAKER: Yes, sir.

MR, KEPHART: Everybody's really busy in the State of Nevada and in Clark County.

PROSPECTIVE JUROR BAKER: Sure.

MR,, KEPHART: And you hear every day how overwhelmed we are, how overwhelmed the police are.

PROSPECTIVE JUROR BAKER: Sure,

MR, KEPHART: I want to go beyond that and I want to talk to you about what you indicated before with regards to whether or not you'd give more weight to a police officer in his testimony.

PROSPECTIVE JUROR BAKER: Yes, sir.

MR, KEPHART: The question I have is would you give it to a police officer simply because he's a police officer or do you base it on your experience and actually hear what they have to testify to?

PROSPECTIVE JUROR BAKER: I don't know how to - I don't know how to answer that because, as a fellow officer, I know the guy's trained, I know he's probably gonna be very, in my mind, he would be extremely accurate in his testimony knowledgeable in his particular area.

MR. KEPHART: That's what I'm getting at Simply because he puts a uniform on, my question is is simply because he does that, do you find his testimony to be more credible than anyone else if you don't consider his training and don't consider, you know, how long the officer's been on the police force, so forth and so on? Do you get — do you see what I'm getting at? I want to know if you're just simply believing because he's a police officer that he's -- he can't lie or won't lie or —

PROSPECTIVE JUROR BAKER: Well — MR. KEPHART: -- can't be mistaken.

PROSPEC.i 1VE JUROR BAKER: Well, he's a human being. Of course, he's —

MR, KEPHART: Okay,

PROSPEME JUROR BAKER: He's no different than anyone else in this room right now as far as that goes. Yes, there's persons capable of lying or telling the truth, But, generally speaking, I trust a police officer. When a police officer says something, I trust that to be true.

MR. KEPHART: Okay. So —

what he's saying. He's saying he'd give more weight to the testimony of a police officer.

THE COURT: You may conduct questioning after the State has concluded. Overruled.

MR. SCHIECK: Thank you, Your Honor.

MR. KEPHART: Is that what you're saying?

PROSPECTIVE JUROR BAKER: I would listen to everything that was said, obviously.

MR. KEPHART: Okay.

PROSPECTIVE JUROR BAKER: But --

MR. KEPHART: Let me ask it this way. Do you believe, knowing what you know as a police officer, that police officers should receive some degree of greater weight in testifying than a normal person on the street?

PROSPECTIVE JUROR BAKER: Yes, I do.

MR. KEPHART: And, basically, police officers are testifying to what they observed, what they have done in their -- in their course of their business, so forth and so on, is that right?

PROSPECTIVE JUROR BAKER: Yes, sir.

MR, KEPHART: Okay. Now if you found out that a police officer was just testifying about his own personal things, would you accept him at a greater degree of weight than you would if you saw — you understand what I'm saying there?

1-84

PROSPECTIVE JUROR BAKER: If it's not, well, that's the --

MR, KEPHART: Okay.

PROSPECTIVE JUROR BAKER: — fault of that particular person. But in general, I've found that police officers are extremely accurate and truthful.

MR, KEPHART: Okay. Then my next question would be is do you think you could be fair, with that understanding, do you think you could be fair in this trial? Could you -- could you be a fair ari'd impartial juror?

PROSPECTIVE JUROR BAKER: I think I could be fair but I don't think I could be impartial.

MR. KEPHART: Impartial being —

PROSPECTIVE JUROR BAKER: I consider myself an honest person so I feel I could be fair, but I don't know if I could be impartial if we're -- in reference to a police officer.

MR. KEPHART: Okay. I understand what you're saying. So you wouldn't wait to hear what he had to say, you wouldn't wait for the defense to cross-examine him or anything; you'd automatically just accept that he's telling you the truth 'cause he's a police officer or something. That's what you're saying, sir.

PROSPECTIVE JUROR BAKER: Well —

MR. SCHIECK: Objection, Your Honor, that's not

PROSPECTIVE JUROR BAKER: I'm not sure where you're going there, to be honest. Are you talking about —

MR, KEPHART: Well, the police officer is gonna — PROSPECTIVE JUROR BAKER: See, he's on trial,

Are you saying that the —

MR. KEPHART: No.

PROSPECTIVE JUROR BAKER: Okay.

MR, KEPHART: The police officer is here, called by the State or by the defense and they're here testifying as to something that they did in the course of their employment as a police officer, PROSPECTIVE JUROR BAKER: Okay. I get you.

MR, KEPHART: Okay. What if they're -- if you've heard the fact that a person was a police officer and he's testifying as to something that's happened in his personal life and it just comes out that, hey, yeah, you're a police officer. Do you automatically give them greater weight because they're a police officer or do you wait and listen to what they have to testify to in reference to their employment?

PROSPECTIVE JUROR BAKER: Oh, in that particular case I believe I would listen to what they testified to.

MR. KEPHART: Okay, So what you're saying is that -- is that because certain individuals are trained or have certain perceptions that they've learned through their job, that they

THE COURT: Do you have any —

MR. KEPHART: In what respect?

THE COURT: Do you have any questions?

MR. SCHIECK: Based on what he's already said, Your Honor, if the Court is going to deny the challenge, I do

Your Honor, if the Court is going to deny the challenge, I do have questions to follow up on.

THE COURT: I'm gonna ask a question then, Mr. Baker, if a member of law enforcement comes in, are you going to listen to their background, training and experience to help you in assessing their credibility? In other words, are you gonna look at whether they just came out of the academy versus somebody that's been on the force for twenty-five years, that's risen up through the ranks?

1-86

THE COURT: And as human —
PROSPECTIVE JUROR BAKER: We're —

THE COURT: And as human beings, none of us is perfect.

PROSPECTIVE JUROR BAKER: I totally agree with that, I -- the only thing that I feel is that because I'm in this particular profession, you know, I feel that a police officer's testimony is, to me, stronger. It seems -- I don't know exactly how to explain that. It seems that -- I guess I trust them more,, I don't -- I don't know how to put the put it into words. I think that I trust a police officer more than I do an everyday citizen because in my job, everyday citizens that I deal with aren't always nice to me, you know. You know what I mean? They lie to me,, They — you know, obviously, when you're interrogating somebody or whatever, you know they're lying. So most of the time when I deal with a fellow officer, it's on a different level, It's — you know, when they tell me that they're gonna be there for me or they're gonna -- or they run this or they provide information to me on something, it's — I always find it extremely reliable. It's not — you see what I'm -- I don't know.

THE COURT: You said most of the time. Have you had experiences where you've had personality rubs with other officers that you worked with on the job?

PROSPECTIVE JUROR BAKER: Well —

THE COURT: Is that gonna -- are you gonna weigh that differently?

PROSPECTIVE JUROR BAKER: Well, you know, Your Honor, that would come into play. I'm also a field training officer, Okay. So, yeah, obviously, because I'm in that capacity, I'm gonna look at someone that just come out of the academy as not being as well trained as somebody that's got ten or fifteen years on the department and is experienced in particular areas, It's obvious that if somebody were to testify in court that's been on a department, right out of the academy, they're not gonna -- their testimony is probably not gonna be as good as somebody that's been on the department for fifteen years that has experience in a courtroom,

THE COURT: So every person that comes in with a badge is not gonna be given the same amount of weight by you. It's gonna depend on their credentials and on their background and what they have to say when they're on the witness stand?

PROSPECTIVE JUROR BAKER: Yes. In that regard, yes. Yes, Your Honor.

THE COURT: And, as you said, members of law enforcement are human beings, too.

PROSPECTIVE JUROR BAKER: Yes, Your Honor.

PROSPECTIVE JUROR BAKER: Well, in the particular -- in this particular profession, yeah, you do have that. But it's almost like a brother. It's almost like a -- it's almost like you've had a disagreement with a brother. You get over it real quick. You're a little bit more thick-skinned with that person.

THE COURT: Mm-hmm, Have you had situations where you thought some of your fellow officers maybe handled a situation a little bit differently than you would have done?

PROSPECTIVE JUROR BAKER: Well, yes, ma'am, Yes, Your Honor, that happens. Everybody has -- in our profession people do handle situations differently.

THE COURT: Okay.

PROSPECTIVE JUROR BAKER: As long as it's within the guidelines set, you know, as long as it's within the guidelines of our training, yes.

THE COURT: If you get a couple of witnesses that have testimony that conflicts, and both of them are officers, what are you going to do to assess truthfulness?

PROSPECTIVE JUROR BAKER: Well, you'd have to listen to the rest of the testimony and try to —

THE COURT: You look and see what other — PROSPECTIVE JUROR BAKER: -- look at the overall

THE COURT: -- corroboration there might be?

1-8

NV v. LOBATO 9/11/06

Would you look to see what other kinds of evidence there might be that would support one --

PROSPEC.INE JUROR BAKER: Sure.

THE COURT: -- version over the other?

PROSPECi_iVE JUROR BAKER: Yes, Your Honor.

Yes.

THE COURT: So I guess -- I guess it boils down to this. Are you gonna be able to wait for the individual to testify before you reach an opinion about their truthfulness and the weight that should be given to their testimony?

PROSPECTIVE JUROR BAKER: Yes, Your Honor. I could do that. I would do that.

THE COURT: Okay.

PROSPECTIVE JUROR BAKER: The only thing that I would be afraid of is that I would give more weight to an officer's testimony than I would somebody else. That's the -- you know, I thought that was what the original question was, Your Honor. You know, and I feel that I'm an honest person and I believe I would listen to all the testimony, but if it came right down to it, if it came down to just, for instance, if that officer made the difference in my -- could possibly make the difference in my mind how I would have viewed the situation.

THE COURT: But you'd wait to hear from them on the stand —

you for cause. I very much appreciate —

PROSPECTIVE JUROR BAKER: Thank you.

THE COURT: your honesty.

PROSPECTIVE JUROR BAKER: Yes, And I would actually like to been on the -- to actually have participated in this, But, you know, I just --

THE COURT: Maybe for another jury another day, PROSPECTIVE JUROR BAKER: Thank you, Your

Honor,

THE COURT: You're welcome.

223, Rowena Cherry.

(Pause in the proceedings)

THE COURT: The record shall reflect that Juror Badge Number 223, Rowena Cherry, has returned to the courtroom, Ms. Cherry, I wanted to ask you a couple of followup questions outside the presence of the other jurors about what your prior knowledge was. You indicated you had some prior knowledge of this particular case before you got here today.

PROSPECTIVE JUROR CHERRY: The newspaper, because I've been delivering it for probably the past decade, and I get to see the news day in and day out and tend to read a lot of the local news.

THE COURT: And what paper do you deliver for?

1-92

PROSPECTIVE JUROR BAKER: I would listen to everything.

THE COURT: -- before you made your determination?

PROSPECTIVE JUROR BAKER: I would listen to everything, Your Honor, But I -- the only thing I'm afraid of is that the right thing to say would be that you just treat everyone the same, but I —

THE COURT: It's not a situation where there is a wrong or a right in response to the question.

PROSPECTIVE JUROR BAKER: You —

THE COURT: It's -- it's just our need to make a determination as to whether you're gonna be able to be openminded and neutral,

PROSPECTIVE JUROR BAKER: Your Honor, I think I can be open-minded. I don't know how neutral I could be if it came down between a police officer and a non-police officer's testimony. If there was those two testimonies and, say, they were both equal, I'm not sure that I could -- that I wouldn't give more weight to the officer's testimony, if that would explain,

THE COURT: Just because they're an officer?
PROSPECTIVE JUROR BAKER: Yes, Your Honor.
THE COURT: The Court is gonna thank and excuse

PROSPECTIVE JUROR CHERRY: The Las Vegas Review Journal, which also delivers The New York Times, Investors Business Daily, Wall Street Journal, and a couple other small publications like The New York Post and other not so reputable newspapers.

THE COURT: Or lesser-known publications?
PROSPECTIVE JUROR CHERRY: More on the line of tabloids,

THE COURT: Okay, But you, yourself, tend to read the paper daily?

PROSPECTIVE JUROR CHERRY: Yes.

THE COURT: Okay. And you've been doing that for over ten years?

PROSPECTIVE JUROR CHERRY: Yes,

THE COURT: Do you recall in particular any articles about this case that you've read?

PROSPECTIVE JUROR CHERRY: Yes, I remember the case because of the nature of the crime, because the person wasn't just murdered, they had their penis cut off, and that's kind of bizarre so it stuck with me.

THE COURT: If you're selected to serve as a juror in this case, will you be able to take what you read in the newspaper articles and set it aside as news coverage and base a decision in this case on the evidence that will be presented

THE COURT: In what way do you think it might affect your judgment?

PROSPECTIVE JUROR CHERRY: Because of it being something that I read and I'm not so clear on what it was that I read at this time, there's a possibility that it could affect me, you know, subconsciously, me thinking one way or another. I'm sorry. I have a bachelor in psychology and a bachelor in criminal justice and tend to not think quite like the common Joe on the street. MR. SCHIECK: Is that fair? Have you discussed anything that IA might have read or knew about this case with any of the other jurors that —

PROSPEC: IiVE JUROR CHERRY: No.

MR. SCHIECK: -- that are out there? But you don't think — you think it's a distinct possibility you're gonna recall something during the course of this that you might have read in the newspaper that's gonna affect your ability to be fair?

PROSPECTIVE JUROR CHERRY: Yes, I think so.

MR. SCHIECK: We would challenge for cause, Your Honor.

MR, KEPHART: No objection.

THE COURT: The Court is gonna thank and excuse you for cause and ask you to report back to the Office of the Jury Commissioner. And please do not confer with any of the other members of the jury, officer than any other individual. And I want to ask you why you would do that or is that still your opinion?

PROSPECTIVE JUROR GRIFFIN: Well, it's still my opinion.

MR, KEPHART: Why would you do that?

PROSPECTIVE JUROR GRIFFIN: Oh, well, probably because of my association and the forty-four years that I've been involved with those people as —

MR. KEPHART: Okay.

PROSPECTIVE JUROR GRIFFIN: You know, as a police officer, you tend to associate with police officers.

MR. KEPHART: Okay.

PROSPECTIVE JUROR GRIFFIN: It becomes your — it becomes your family.

MR. KEPHART: Mm-hmm.

PROSPECTIVE JUROR GRIFFIN: So —

MR, KEPHART: If you were weighing the testimony of a police officer versus someone that's not a police officer, and it was the same area that you were weighing the testimony, and it's your testimony, I mean, it's your statement now that you would give more weight to the police officer or would you wait to see what all the testimony was, to see whether or not it was corroborated or not corroborated or other evidence supported the officer or didn't support the officer? Would you do that?

 PROSPECTIVE JUROR GRIFFIN: Well, certainly, I would look at all of the -- all of the evidence. But as far as direct testimony, I'm not sure it's testifying, I believe I did answer that I would give more credibility or I would tend to give more weight to his testimony.

MR. KEPHART: Okay. And that's based on your experience with officers and your being an officer yourself? PROSPECTIVE JUROR GRIFFIN: That's correct.

MR. KEPHART: Okay. Do you believe that there's times that an officer's testimony because of their background, what they do, possibly deserves more weight versus a layperson that isn't trained in observation or the law, or whatever?

PROSPECTIVE JUROR GRIFFIN: Oh, I think it's because of their experience and their training that they tend to have more -- they're more knowledgeable about what they're testifying and they should know the facts of the case.

MR. KEFiaRT: Okay.

PROSPECTIVE JUROR GRIFFIN: But --

MR. KEPHART: If you were chosen as a juror here, would you be able to sit and wait until all the evidence was presented to you before you made a decision whether or not an officer was correct or incorrect with his testimony versus believe because of their training that they should be knowledgeable about it.

MR. KEPHART: Okay. In that respect, would you give more weight to a person who qualifies as an expert versus somebody that's not an expert?

PROSPECTIVE JUROR GRIFFIN: That's so subjective. I don't know if you could answer that, MR. KEPHART: Okay. I'll pass for cause, Your Honor.

MS. GREENBERGER: Good afternoon.

THE COURT: Defense may question.

PROSPECTIVE JUROR GRIFFIN: Good afternoon.

MS. GREENBERGER: Thank you, Judge. Excuse me for having my back to the Court.

Do you think that one of the reasons why you would be or have trouble being fair and impartial is the length of time that you've devoted to your career to a history of law enforcement?

PROSPECTIVE JUROR GRIFFIN: I'm not sure I understand.

MS. GREENBERGER: Is it the length of time that you've been in law enforcement that you believe would affect you from keeping an open mind if there's an officer on the stand in terms of his credibility?

1-100

other individuals that aren't officers?

PROSPECI1VE JUROR GRIFFIN: Well, I'd like to think I would and I can't honestly say that I'd like to think I would

MR. KEPHART: Okay. Can you be fair and impartial as a juror here?

 $\label{eq:prospective} \mbox{PROSPECTIVE JUROR GRIFFIN: Well, sure, I think I could.}$

MR. KEPHART: Okay, But you're also saying that you, based on A police officer's testimony, that I mean, can — do you believe a police officer can make a mistake?

PROSPECTIVE JUROR GRIFFIN: Sure.

MR, KEPHART: Do you believe that —

PROSPECTIVE JUROR GRIFFIN: Absolutely.

Absolutely.

have,

MR. !KEPHART: Do you believe maybe even police officers have lied before?

PROSPECTIVE JUROR GRIFFIN: Oh, I'm sure they

MR. KEPHART: Okay. Do you believe that there's a difference in a police officer testifying to what he does for a living versus somebody that's just a witness in the case and is testifying as to some knowledge that they have of the case?

PROSPECTIVE JUROR GRIFFIN: Well, there again, I

PROSPECTIVE JUROR GRIFFIN: I'd like to think that I'd take an oath of blindly fairness, who was on the stand and who was testifying. But to just answer your question, would I tend to give more weight to a police officer who has a certain amount of experience and training, would I give more weight to their testimony than I would to someone, a layperson, who doesn't have that experience and training, I would give more credibility and more weight to the officer.

MS. GREENBERGER: If you were sitting in my client's chair, do you, with your present mental state and your honest opinion, do you think that you should get -- you would want someone like yourself on the jury if you were sitting in my client's chair?

PROSPECTIVE JUROR GRIFFIN: Oh, I don't know. I can't answer that question. I can't -- I can't put myself in your client's.

MS. GREENBERGER: Do you think that based on your law enforcement background that there's a significant likelihood that your experience would enter into your decision-making process and affect your impartiality?

PROSPECTIVE JUROR GRIFFIN: Frankly, I'm not sure how to answer that. And I've been involved in a number of cases over the years with homicides and sexual assaults and rapes, and all of those things. So I guess some of these

\IV v. LOBATO questions I couldn't answer by personally [sic]. 2 MS. GREENBERGER: But it sounds like what you're 3 saying, is it fair to say, that if you're judging between the 4 credibility of a law enforcement officer on the stand and a lay witness the scales will not be balanced? 5 6 PROSPECTIVE JUROR GRIFFIN: That's fair to say. 7 Yes, 8 MS, GREENBERGER: Nothing further. 9 THE COURT: Anything further by the State? 10 MR. KEPHART: No, Your Honor. THE COURT: Counsel, approach. 11 (Off-record bench conference at 15:54:43 until 15:57:56) 12 THE COURT: Mr. Griffin, the Court at this time is 13 gonna thank and excuse you for cause. Please report back to 14 15 the Office of the Jury Commissioner. 16 Would the bailiff see if Juror Badge Number 235, Michelle Moir, is in the -- in the hallway? 17 18 THE BAILIFF: Yes, I will. 19 THE COURT: Okay, Michelle Moir, Badge Number 235, has now entered the courtroom, 20 Were you able to contact your human resources 21 person at Sunrise? 22 23 PROSPEL.I NE JUROR MOIR: I was. And they said that they would pay for it if --1-102 THE COURT: Okay, So then — 2 PROSPECTIVE JUROR MOIR: As long as I have 3 proof that I was here, 4 THE COURT: Okay. So if we draft up a little letter 5 for you saying that you were — you were selected for the jury in this case, that would suffice for you? 6 7 PROSPECTIVE JUROR MOIR: Yeah, and maybe just 8 give them like a time estimate. And then if it goes further, we 9 can get another letter. 10 THE ',OURT: Okay, Thanks. You remain under the admonishment, and you may step back out to the hallway. 11 12 Thank you. 13 Unless anybody has an objection then, I'm gonna 14 back tomorrow and we're gonna have to get an additional 2 panel. We're down to twenty-three, and we need — 3 THE COURT: We're down to how many? MS. DIGIACOMO: We need thirteen, plus eighteen, 4 and we're down to twenty-three. 6 MR. KEPHART: No, no, no, no. Excused twenty-7 three. 8 DiGIACOMO: Oh, we've excused twenty-three. -9 MR, KEPHART: Mm-hmm. MS. DiGIACOMO: So minus fifty-five, we're down — 10 MR. SCHIECK: We're gonna need more, 11 MS. DIGIACOMO: Yeah, we're gonna need more, 12 13 THE COURT: Okay, We've got --MR, KEPHART: We've got thirty-seven. 14 MS. DiGIACOMO: Fifty-five minus twenty-three. 15 16 MR. KEPHART: Thirty-seven. 17 THE COURT: I'm gonna go ahead and take us off 18 the record while we do this. 19 (Court recessed at 16:00:33 until 16:28:49) 20 (Prospective jurors are present) THE BAILIFF: All rise, please. Department Ills 21 back in session. Please be seated. 22 23 THE COURT: The record shall reflect that we're resuming trial in State versus Lobato under C177394, in the 24 1-104 presence of the defendant, her three counsel, the two 2 prosecuting attorneys and the ladies and gentlemen of the potential jury panel. Ladies and gentlemen, we're going to be proceeding 4 5 6 ask the JEA to do her -- to do her a letter saying that she was here today and that if this case -- if she gets selected that she'll be here through the 29<sup>11h</sup> or may be here up through the 29th, Okay.

MR. SCHIECK: The letter should probably encompass tomorrow, too. I would imagine she's gonna be — MS, GREENBERGER: Brought back.

MR. SCHIECK: She's far enough down the panel she'll be back tomorrow.

MS. DiGIACOMO: Well, actually, the entire — we don't have enough, so the entire panel is gonna have to come forward with additional voir dire questions at this time. At this point the Court is gonna divide you into the two groups. Actually, I think I'm not gonna be able to do that 'cause I think we have less than the number that we need for the first group,

7 which is thirty-three. 10

How many do we have? Thirty —

THE CLERK: Thirty-two,

THE COURT: Thirty-two, Okay.

Then all of you will be in the first group.

Do any of you know any reason why you couldn't be a completely fair and impartial juror if selected to serve in this case?

The record shall reflect no response.

Is there any one of you who cannot wait in forming your opinion as to the guilt or innocence of the defendant until after all of the evidence has been heard?

The record shall reflect no response.

Have any of you ever been arrested for a crime?

I have a couple of hands up. In the back row.

Your badge number and your name, please?
